REPUBLIC SPECIAL. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Washington, March & Doctor Don Jose de Jesus Paul, special envoy of with President Rosseveit at the White House, He expressed to President Rosseveit the opinion that the settlement of pending disputes between the Governments was being retarded rather than accelerated by the continued settlement of Carnets of by the continued presence at Caracas of Mr. Bowen, the American Minister, But President Rossevelt does not intend at present to recall Mr. Bowen, unless President Castro socileally and formally the continued of ident Castro specifically and formally states that he is persons non grats.

Whether Venezuela will ask for Mr. Bowen's recall depends on the character of the mail report from Mr. Bowen as to the answer made by President Castro to the American request for arbitration of pending disputes. Some reports have said that Mr. Bowen's telegraph account represented Castro as curily and esvallerly disposing of the request. In Venezuelan quarters it is said that President Castro was firm, but not effensive, and that R will be a serious matter if he is reported otherwise by Mr. Bowen.

Doctor Paul said te-night: "I believe the way is open for an amicable settlement of the affair. I find this Government thelined to act calmly and reusenably."
